

NBSC welcomes Direct Recruit Officers :

Induction Programme 12 to 23 December 2016

The Induction programmes for Direct Recruit Officers was conducted in NBSC during 12-23 December, 2016. The programmes for 92 officers were conducted in three batches. Dr. Harsh Kumar Bhanwala, Chairman, accompanied by Shri M. K. Mudgal, CGM, HRMD graced the inaugural event on 12 December, 2016. It was a memorable occasion for the DRs, being welcomed into organisation by the Chairman, the head of the NABARD Parivar. In the inaugural address, the Chairman advised the DRs to inculcate the values of NABARD that we hold dear. Integrity, sincerity, professionalism and empathy for the farmers and the poor residing in rural areas are our core values, he emphasised.

The induction programme covered broad areas of NABARD's functions comprising business, development, institution building and supervision. The sessions mainly focussed on imparting basic knowledge on different work areas besides soft skills on business etiquette, organisational communication and working in teams. Inputs on NABARD Staff Rules, Preventive Vigilance and Prevention of Sexual Harassment in Work Place were also provided. The programme which concluded on 23 December 2016 was highly appreciated by the participants.
