

7th Programme on Agriculture Technology and Extension

The 7th Programme on Agriculture Technology and Extension was organized by NBSC from 22 to 24 January 2018 at Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu. The training programme was inaugurated by Prof. Chinnadurai, Director, Centre for Agriculture and Rural Development Studies (CARDS), Tamil Nadu Agriculture University (TNAU). In total, 24 officers in Grade A/B/C attended the programme. Professors of Water Technology Centre (WTC), Post- Harvest Technology, Nano Technology (NABARD Chair), Director of Extension Education of TNAU addressed the participants besides Joint Director of Agriculture, Government of Tamil Nadu, Coimbatore.

A field visit was also organized to SSI and automated irrigation management system plots of WTC, Nano technology Centre, processing unit of Post-Harvest Centre, Agri-Business Incubation Centre, Aeroponics unit of TNAU, Sugarcane Breeding Institute (SBI) of ICAR, Regional Centre of Central institute of Agricultural Engineering of ICAR and Progressive farmer on Integrated farming systems. The trainees were very happy with the showcasing of latest technologies and also efforts to transfer technologies to farmers.

Shri B. Sathish Rao and Dr. Vivek Pathania, DGMs/FMs were the Programme Directors (PDs). A few photographs of the programme are enclosed.

Dr. Chinnadurai, Director, CARDS, TNAU, inaugurating the training programme

7th Programme on Agriculture Technology and Extension

